

2003 ALL ARMY CHESS TEAM

(in the order they finished)

Name	Unit	location
1. Sgt Rudy Tia	D Co 57 th Sig Bn	Fort Hood TX
2. Sgt Kenneth Davidson	HHC LTF 46 th	Karshi-Khanabad, Uzbekistan Now in Fort Bragg, NC
3. Maj Michael Cerezo	USARC HHC 91 st Div	Dublin CA
4. SFC Jeffrey McAleer	D Co 832 nd Ord Bn	Redstone Arsenal
5. Sgt Kevin McElvany	17 th ASG CM MEDCOM	Camp Zama, Japan
6. Maj Glenn Mosteller	HHC 2 nd BDE	Schweinfurt, Germany
7. SFC Tancredo Pastores	13 th COSCOM	Fort Hood TX
8. MSG Andre Hortillosa Houston TX	A Co, Academy Bn, AMEDD Center and School	Fort Sam
9. Spc Ryan King	286 Sig BN	Fort Bliss TX
10. Spc Jorge Oyola	122 nd Sig BN	Camp Red Claud, Korea
11. CW4 Frederick Krewson (withdrew after first Day)	MDW Defense Intel Agency	Bolling AFB, MD office IG
12. SSgt Vidal Carvajal	F Troop 4/7 CAV	Camp Stanton, Korea

The top 6 players will advance to the 2003 Interservice Chess Championships to be held at Camp Lejeune USMC, NC, 2-9 August. There, they will play against the top 6 players from the AF, USMC and Navy. It will be a 24 person chess tourney, Swiss style format.

Please note, Sgt Rudy Tia will not participate in the interservice. Players 2-7 will represent the US Army at the Interservice Chess Championships.

The top 6 emerging from that week of play will advance to the 2003 NATO Chess Championships in Copenhagen, Denmark 4-8 September, 2003. This will be a match against the top 6 players from 12 other countries military services.

Last year, the US placed a close 2nd behind Germany.